

It's a Great Time to Live in New Brunswick!

Join us as our new

President & Chief Executive Officer

About Us

York Care Centre is our long-term care home - the largest in the province of New Brunswick, serving 218 residents. Our research company, the Centre for Innovation and Research in Aging, has multiple research projects underway with partnerships from across Canada. And our senior's housing portfolio, York Developments, includes a mix of independent and assisted-living options. We also operate The York Care Foundation, leading fund-raising efforts on behalf of York Care Centre. In total, there are about 350 employees, serving more than 300 older adults. To learn more about us, candidates are encouraged to explore our website(s) at www.yorkcarecentre.ca and www.agingresearch.ca.

About the Role

As the long-term care sector pivots to the demands of an ever-aging population and the challenges of leading through a pandemic, the President and Chief Executive Officer will continue our progress towards the vision of Excellence in Long-Term Care. The CEO will work closely with the board of directors, senior leadership team, employees, volunteers, and sector-wide partners.

Current strategic priorities include the development of a new senior's housing complex, ongoing aging research, and community connections.

About the Candidate

This executive role calls for an inspiring and engaging CEO, providing strategic and operational leadership on behalf of the board of directors. The ideal candidate is an experienced health or long-term care leader with an exemplary track record of leading teams, change leadership, creating a healthy and engaged culture, communicating well, and organizational growth. Overall, this position will be of interest to someone with strong empathy and listening skills, advanced communication and presentation skills, and a desire to continually improve the long-term care experience for residents, families, and employees. Ideally, the candidate is prepared at the Master's level.

How to Express Interest
